

Our Team

Gabrielle Bouchard

is an engineer, educator, advocate for youth social mobility and the creator of the YouTube series "Gabby on Government", based in Toronto, ON.

is an engineer, project manager and environmental professional who serves as Senior Policy and Programs Analyst at Canada Economic Development for Quebec Regions, based in Montreal, QC.

Dakota Norris

(B.Comm) is a Programs Manager at Youth Climate Lab and a member of the Gwich'in First Nation, based in Saskatoon, SK.

Helen Tewolde

is Director of Policy and Programs at The Law Foundation of Ontario and LLM Candidate (Constitutional) at Osgoode Hall Law School based in Toronto, ON.

Mentor: Mike DeGagné, Indspire CEO

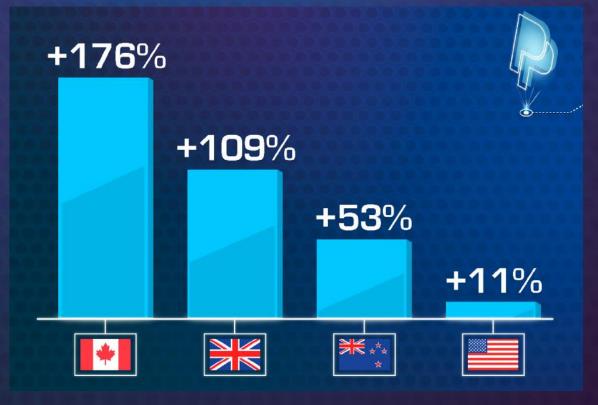

Imperative 1

COVID-19 has accelerated the growth of the Platform Economy

GROWTH IN PLATFORM GIG WORK: 2016-2021

Source: Oxford Internet Institute, 2021

Imperative 2

Platforms have disrupted the livelihoods of Canadians

31,000

homes removed from Canada's long-term housing market

Top 1%

of hosts earning 20% of all Airbnb revenue

Source: Canadian Journal of Urban Research, 2019

Imperative 3

Inadequate and piecemeal responses

'I just need to survive,' Canadian Uber Eats drivers say wages being squeezed during pandemic

NEWS | Travel | Municipal Politics

Airbnb Hosts Are Already Plotting Their Post-Pandemic Comeback

If the short-term rental site rebounds, BC communities want to see better regulation.

ECONOMY

Ontario labour board rules Foodora couriers are dependent contractors, eligible for union

THREE DISRUPTIVE GOVERNANCE GAPS

1: Reactive Governance

January 12, 2021

Quebec restaurant files class action against 'abusive' delivery fees during pandemic

March 11, 2021

Quebec tables bill capping charges by delivery services like Uber Eats

2: Privatization of Governance

53%

of surveyed Canadian workers and businesses believe governments should be doing more to govern how digital platforms operate in Canada.

Source: Survey on digital platforms impacts on workers and businesses in Canada, 2021

3: Asymmetrical Governance

Asymmetry can result in platform firms, including foreign-owned ones, easily entering the Canadian market and subverting Canadian industries with no regard for the impacts and consequences.

THREE RECOMMENDATIONS

Recommendation 1

Establish a National Centre for the Platform Economy

Recommendation 2 Enhance Competition Bureau oversight of the Platform Economy

Recommendation 3

Initiate federally-led regional assessments of platform impacts

